Board Results for Command/Non-Command Posted

The board results are posted on the CNSRF webpage
(<http://www.navy.mil/navresfor/navsurf/navsurf.html>).

If someone did not get selected for a billet, there's no need to panic just yet as they are not immediately sent to the VTU - there are still two more phases to fill billets:

Phase I: Please scrub the list when it comes out and let YN1 McDaniel know ASAP if something is wrong or has changed (i.e. someone selected for a billet is retiring, someone declines the billet, someone received a waiver to remain in their current billet, a billet was double filled, etc.). The policy guidance is that if someone selected for a billet declines that billet, he or she then gets transferred to the VTU. YN1 McDaniel is going to commence writing orders ASAP so we can get them all out in time. Orders for these folks will be 2 years for CO/OIC, 3 years for Non-Cmd.

Phase II: The second phase of this whole process is the Alternate Candidate List (ACL). This is how that works:

- The ACL is the list of all officers (in "confidence factor" order, from highest to lowest) who did not get selected for a billet for whatever reason (contrary to common belief, this is not a list of dirtbags, I personally know there are people on the ACL with confidence factors of "100" - the reason people may not have been selected for a billet is that they did not apply for a billet, or they applied for a billet in which they were not qualified for, or the billets for which they applied were already taken by someone higher on the confidence factor list, etc.)

- CNSRF will fill any billets that have not been filled by the board for whatever reason using this list and will publish the "ACL Selection Results" within a month or so.

- People selected for billets off of the ACL are given full tenure orders (2 years for CO/OIC, 3 years for Non-Cmd).

Phase III: The last phase for folks who did not get selected for a billet in phases I or II, are filled locally by the REDCOM (that would be me!) - these orders will be one-year interim fill orders only and that person needs to apply for a billet next year. I will coordinate with you using inputs from your and your Unit COs on how best to fill these billets. Most of these billets will be O-4 and below, so it won't be an issue of putting someone in pay or not, merely an issue of putting the best person available in the job.

1. AS A CONTINUATION OF OUR LEADING CHANGE INITIATIVES, THE NAVAL RESERVE FORCE HEADQUARTERS IS IN THE PROCESS OF ALIGNING STAFFS, PROCESSES AND EFFORTS TO BETTER SERVE NAVAL RESERVISTS AND THE FLEET. THE ALIGNMENT, SCHEDULED TO TAKE PLACE IN THE SPRING OF 2002, WILL PROVIDE MORE EFFECTIVE AND PRODUCTIVE SUPPORT TO THE NAVY AND TO NAVAL RESERVISTS.

2. ALIGNING THE STAFFS OF COMNAVRESFOR, COMNAVRESFOR AND COMNAVSURFRESFOR WILL IMPROVE COMMUNICATIONS, INTEGRATE AND STREAMLINE THE RESERVE FORCE. STANDARDIZED FORCE-WIDE PRACTICES, POLICIES AND REQUIREMENTS WILL LEAD TO A BETTER ORGANIZED, TRAINED AND EQUIPPED NAVAL RESERVE FORCE.

3. THE ALIGNMENT IS STILL IN ITS EARLY STAGES. IN THE MONTHS AHEAD, THE NEW ORLEANS STAFFS WILL STUDY AND ANALYZE THE HEADQUARTERS ORGANIZATION TO DETERMINE THE BEST USE AND STRUCTURE FOR THE NEW NAVAL RESERVE FORCE HEADQUARTERS STAFF, WHICH WILL REMAIN IN NEW ORLEANS. THE GOAL IS TO BECOME MORE EFFECTIVE, AND THE FOCUS OF THE REVIEWS WILL BE TO DETERMINE HOW TO PROVIDE BETTER SUPPORT TO THE RESERVE FORCE'S CUSTOMERS - RESERVISTS AND THE FLEET.

4. ALIGNMENT IS IMPORTANT AT THIS STAGE BECAUSE THE NAVAL RESERVE FORCE CHANGED MISSIONS TEN YEARS AGO, AND THERE MUST BE A CONTINUOUS ALIGNMENT OF GOALS, PROCESSES AND PEOPLE TO BEST SUPPORT NAVAL RESERVISTS AND FLEET CUSTOMERS. JUST AS THE NAVY IS CHANGING TO MEET THE CHALLENGES OF A NEW CENTURY, THE NAVAL RESERVE MUST CHANGE TO STAY IN STEP WITH THE FLEET AND CONTINUE TO EFFECTIVELY PROVIDE

THE SUPPORT THE NAVY NEEDS AND EXPECTS FROM THE NAVAL RESERVE FORCE.
5. AS THE ALIGNMENT PROGRESSES THROUGH PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT,
INFORMATION WILL BE PROVIDED TO THE NAVAL RESERVE FORCE VIA MESSAGE
TRAFFIC, NAVAL RESERVIST NEWS, THE NAVAL RESERVE NEWS SERVICE AND THE COMNAVRESFOR WEB SITE.//
